“For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them.”

Matthew 18:20 [NIV]

“This pandemic is a global crisis which challenges our understanding of how the world works. It creates an unsettling doubt in our mind and soul. As we begin to emerge from this crisis we need more than ever to reconnect with our heritage. We need to revisit our sacred spaces. Over the past 70 years, Epworth has become a sacred space for hundreds of thousands of people who have walked these grounds. This is a holy place. For over five decades, this sacred place has molded and shaped me. I will forever be connected to it in a sacred way. Now more than ever, it needs me and I need it. Come experience it for yourself and you will understand what I am saying.”

-Jay Hanson

“Epworth By The Sea is a special place that I love to visit when needing a place to escape from the stresses of everyday life. When going through the entrance under the arch, a peace and contentment is immediately felt. The beauty of the grounds and prayer chapel, incredible sunsets and rocking on the front porch with friends are my favorite things about this wonderful place.”

-Karen Forrester

God led me to Epworth by the Sea 45 years ago, and after discovering this sanctuary of God's earthly beauty, I continue to return every spring. After passing through the historic arch, a feeling of spiritual peace, joy, and excitement is immediately experienced. There are numerous ways in which Epworth touches my soul. The beauty of nature, especially the majestic live oaks, is a perfect illustration of God's handiwork. The prayer chapel by the Frederica River is a wonderful quiet place in which to experience personal spirituality. I thank God for this Christian mission by the water's edge.
